

WE'RE HIRING

THE UNIVERSITY OF
NEW MEXICO
FOUNDATION

The University of New Mexico Foundation, UNM's incorporated fundraising organization, is actively recruiting for many exciting opportunities. If you have the experience and skills to work with University alumni, donors, and leadership, we would love to visit with you. If you know somebody who is mission driven and passionate about making a difference for UNM's students, faculty and programs, please share our information with them.

CURRENT OPENINGS

Associate Managing Director of Data Strategy and Quality

Director of Development, Student Affairs and Special Projects

Director of Development, School of Law

Director of Development, UNM Comprehensive Cancer Center

Director of Development, College of Population Health

Administrative Coordinator

Financial Specialist

IT Support Specialist

Talent Acquisition Officer

WHAT WE OFFER

- The opportunity to work collaboratively with a group of highly motivated and metrics driven development professionals
- A broad set of competitive benefits including healthcare options, ongoing professional development and educational opportunities, unlimited flexible paid leave, 8 paid holidays, wellness program, exceptional retirement contributions, and much more.
- A beautiful, active and diverse community to work and thrive in. The UNM campus is located in the heart of Albuquerque, New Mexico's largest city.

Apply at www.unmfund.org/careers

For more information, contact Gretchen Doyle at 505.313.7647 or via email at gretchen.doyle@unmfund.org.

We look forward to hearing from you!

